“Hey Indy! Do you think we should get an elf on the shelf this year?” Mrs McKellar asked curiously. “Of course we should get an elf on the shelf this year! I have so many reasons why we should get one.” said Indy excitedly. “Okay go on, tell me why we should get an elf on the shelf this year” Mrs McKellar said with lots of curiosity. “Well firstly, I think we should get an elf on the shelf because every child in this room would be very excited and grateful that we get to have one because we have been waiting for nearly a whole year!” Indy said nervously. “That’s a good reason. Tell me some more”! said Mrs McKellar wonderingly. “Secondly, the elf on the shelf would make a lot of mess and everybody would think it’s funny except for one person of course, you because you’re going to have to clean the elf’s mess up .” Indy said with lots of laughter. “Well that’s not very nice because I will have to clean it up during my break time.” Said Mrs McKellar angrily. “Finally, I think we should get an elf on the shelf this year because I bet all of 3M would behave wonderfully. We would get all of our work done quickly so there would be time for us to play a game or two. We would also all behave well and be kind to one another, and not a single person in this class would get a red card.” Indy said anxiously. “Those were some amazing reasons why we should get one. Now tell me a conclusion please” Mrs McKellar said happily. “Okay” said Indy. “In conclusion, I think we should get an elf on the shelf for all of these reasons because they are wonderful and made by me!” Indy said.

“Okay we can get an elf on the shelf” Mrs McKellar said happily.
